WENDY SELIG-PRIEB

Chairman of the Board

Wendy Selig-Prieb became Chairman of the Board of the Milwaukee Brewers on November 1, 2002. As Chairman, Selig-Prieb will continue to represent the Brewers at Major League meetings and to work on industry issues as well as to focus on Brewers Charities and other community initiatives on behalf of the Brewers.

Selig-Prieb's passion and leadership have been vital to the Brewers since 1990 when she joined the club as General Counsel. In September 1992, she assumed more responsibility for the day-to-day operations when her father, Allan H. Selig, became Chairman of Baseball's Executive Council. On August 4, 1998, Selig-Prieb replaced him as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Milwaukee Brewers when he accepted the position of Commissioner of Major League Baseball.

The 2001 opening of Miller Park - a fan friendly, world class ballpark, was the culmination of a 10-year mission for Selig-Prieb and the realization of her vision of the ultimate entertainment experience. In the inaugural season, the Brewers surpassed their previous attendance record established in 1983 and set a franchise attendance record by drawing 2,811,041. This record setting attendance also represented an increase of 1,238,000, the largest increase by a Major League club in the first year of a new ballpark.

Selig-Prieb, a life-long fan of the game believes in its traditions and understands the responsibility of a team to its community. Under her leadership, the Brewers rededicated themselves to the community and enhanced their involvement, including the creation of Brewers Charities, Inc., in support of charities, activities and programs serving youth and the underprivileged throughout the State of Wisconsin.

Selig-Prieb is the only female Chairman of a Major League Baseball club. She is a member of The Commissioner's Initiative on Women and Baseball, and has been a driving force in efforts to bring more women and families out to the game. As part of management's 12-person negotiating committee in collective bargaining sessions with the MLB Players Association, she was the first woman to represent Major League Baseball at the bargaining table (1994 and 1995). She has served on numerous other committees for Baseball and has represented the Brewers at Major League meetings since 1992.

A lifelong Milwaukeean, Wendy is very active in the community. She is currently a Director of the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund and United Way of Greater Milwaukee. Since 1998 Wendy has served as the honorary chair for the March of Dimes WalkAmerica and she is a co-chair of the YWCA's Circle of Women luncheon this year. Wendy also serves on the Governor's Glass Ceiling Commission. She is on the Board of Directors of Guaranty Bank and is a member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee. Wendy is also a member of the Board of Overseers for Athletics of Tufts University.

Among the honors awarded to Selig-Prieb during her tenure with the Brewers are: the Joseph E. O'Neill Award which is given annually by the Marquette University National Sports Law Institute to an individual in sports who has made a significant contribution to the field and done so while exemplifying the highest ethical standards; Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal ranked her among the most powerful women in sports for three consecutive years; Milwaukee's Sixteenth Street Community Health Center honored her at their annual roast in 2000; Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal included her in its inaugural "40 under 40" list in 1999; a past finalist for the Women in Sports and Events (WISE) Woman of the Year award; and in 1992 The Business Journal serving greater Milwaukee included her in its "40 Under 40" profiles.

Selig-Prieb was born in Milwaukee on March 18, 1960. She graduated from University School in Milwaukee in 1978. She graduated magna cum laude in 1982 from Tufts University in Medford, Massachusetts, with a bachelor's degree in political science. Selig-Prieb began her baseball career in the Brewers broadcasting department in 1982 before becoming an Executive Trainee in the Baseball Commissioner's office for two years. After earning her Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from Marquette University Law School in 1988, Selig-Prieb worked as a corporate attorney for Foley & Lardner before joining the Brewers.

Selig-Prieb is married to Laurel Prieb, the Brewers Vice President of Marketing. They have a daughter, Natalie, and reside in Fox Point, Wisconsin.

Breaking Barriers in Sports & Life

Breaking Barriers is a character education program developed by Major League Baseball, Major League Baseball Players Association and Scholastic, Inc. It is based on the values that shaped the life of Jackie Robinson and the concept that all of us – students, teachers, parents and professional baseball players – face barriers in our lives. This program is a component of our partnership with the Milwaukee Public School District. By participating in this program, middle school-aged youngsters learn what it takes to develop good values and how that process shapes their future. We look forward to having Sharon Robinson visit Milwaukee again to meet with students here and talk more about this inspirational program.

Brewers Wives

The Milwaukee Brewers Wives have an important role in the team's community outreach efforts. Their commitment has evolved into several special charity events. Each summer, the wives host the annual tailgate party to benefit Sojourner Truth House, a shelter for battered women and children. Additionally, proceeds from the Brewers Wives' Auction support other worthwhile organizations including COA Youth and Family Centers, the CAP Fund, Walker's Point Youth and Family Center and Gilda's Club. The auction is a popular event featuring autographed items, collectibles and player appearances.

Recognition of Academic Success

Now in its 15th year, the Brewers have teamed up with the Bradley Foundation and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel to sponsor an incentive program for area students who demonstrate academic effort and achievement. THE PEOPLE'S PARK

April 6, 2001 is a day that the people of Wisconsin and fans of Major League Baseball will remember for many years to come. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning.

President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the state of Wisconsin. He, along with Baseball Commissioner, Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first balls prior to the game. This was just the first of many wonderful events that will take place in the Brewers' new home.

Miller Park has drawn more than 5,000,000 visitors in its first two seasons including 2,811,041 for Brewers baseball in 2001, shattering the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance. The ballpark was a popular stop for fans outside of the Milwaukee area as well with more than 57% of the club's attendance coming from outside of the Milwaukee area. In addition, the Brewers established a group ticket sales record in 2001 with more than 619,000 group tickets sold.

Miller Park was not only the home to Brewers baseball in its inaugural season. While the team was away, the park played host to a pair of major concerts including the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the popular band N'Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers themselves.

The Klement's Famous Racing Sausages signed a three-year deal to keep racing at Miller Park through 2005.

That was just the beginning. The Brewers continued to make Miller Park the home for a wide variety of events in 2002. The ballpark hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Milwaukee's third all-star game and its first since 1975. Additionally, Miller Park accommodated a University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee baseball doubleheader in April.

With an economic impact, according to the Greater Milwaukee Convention and Visitors Bureau, of $416 million in 2001, Miller Park has played and will continue to be a huge part of the revival of Milwaukee as a tourist destination. Along with the new Calatrava wing of the Milwaukee Art Museum, the Midwest Express Convention Center and the proposed Harley Davidson Museum, Miller Park has definitely put Milwaukee on the map as a place to visit any time of year.

Here's just a sampling about what others are saying about baseball's newest jewel:

"There's no comparison. This is an awesome building and a great place to play. You miss County Stadium, but when you see this, you forget about it real quick. It's like you're outside. It doesn't have that closed-in feeling like most domes do. They brought the outside in, so it's awesome." Brewers legend Jim Gantner.

"Oh, boy is that beautiful. This is one of the greatest ballparks in the country. Some dome stadiums feel like you're in someone's living room. But this, people will fall in love with it." United States Senator Russell Feingold.

"I truly wanted to put the uniform back on and play again." Hall of Famer Robin Yount, on his first impressions of Miller Park.

"This is the people's park." Brewers President and CEO, Ulice Payne, Jr.

What's Inside MILLER PARK?

Miller Park, the home of the Milwaukee Brewers, offers fans a one-of-a-kind entertainment experience.

The ballpark is the only one in North America to feature a convertible, fan-shaped roof guaranteeing that baseball will be played, even on the most inclement of Wisconsin days.

The roof features seven panels to cover the fans from the weather elements. Each roof panel is the equivalent of the Bradley Center roof, in downtown Milwaukee. The entire roof closes in 10 minutes and at its outside height reaches 330 feet.

With a creative and unique split-bowl, seating configuration, fans are closer to the action than they have ever been before in Milwaukee. The four seating levels (the Field Level, the Loge Level, the Club Level and the Terrace Level), with 41,900 seats, give fans four great options and also four front rows from which to choose at Miller Park.

There are 70 suites at Miller Park including 20 Founders Suites located on the Field Level. They are the best suites in baseball. There are 50 suites on the Club Level, including several behind home plate affording suite holders a view of Brewers action unparalleled in Milwaukee baseball history.

The field dimensions at Miller Park, designed with the input of Hall of Famer and Brewers legend Robin Yount, are asymmetrical. The left field line is 344 feet; the left field power alley is 371 feet; straight-away center field is 400 feet; the right field power alley is 374 feet; and the right field line is 345 feet. The field has a natural grass playing surface and features the same infield mix as what existed at County Stadium, which had one of the best playing fields in Major League Baseball.

Miller Park offers fans upscale amenities including the .300 Club restaurant, TGI Friday's Front Row restaurant, an interactive area called the Big League Blast, an enormous and enticing novelty store called the Fan Zone as well as meeting rooms with amazing views of Milwaukee, all in the "Hot Corner" located in the left field area. The "Hot Corner" is open year-around to give fans and visitors a chance to enjoy Miller Park at any time.

"Isn't it nice, you can tell what's up there!" Bob Uecker referring to the scoreboard.

One of the truly remarkable features of Miller Park is the beautiful color replay board and full scoreboard located in straight-away centerfield. The color replay board is 48x37 feet and gives fans a crystal clear view of exciting replays and highlights that they have never had in Milwaukee before. The 76x32 foot matrix board provides fans with all of the pertinent information regarding the action on the field.

Miller Park also features "Home To Heroes", a series of colorful murals depicting five great industries of Wisconsin tied to the five eras of baseball in the state, beginning with the American League Brewers of 1901 and continuing to the current and future Brewers. These murals are displayed throughout Miller Park.

The Miller Park experience extends to the parking lots as well. Miller Park will essentially become a "park within a park" with landscaping, which accentuates the great Wisconsin tradition of tailgating.

Miller Park construction began in October, 1996 with the official groundbreaking date on November 9, 1996. The ballpark is being funded by a 0.1% sales tax in five counties including Milwaukee, Racine, Waukesha, Ozaukee and Washington counties. The Brewers contributed $90 million to the project, including a 20-year, $41.2 million naming rights deal with the Miller Brewing Company.

Visiting media wishing to tour Miller Park should contact the Brewers Media Relations Department prior to coming to Milwaukee.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed six inductees going into the 2003 season. The first class of Walk-of-Famers in 2001 included Henry Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount. In 2002, Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Cecil Cooper joined the prestigious ranks.

The class of 2003, to be enshrined on July 8, includes legendary Brewers radio voice Bob Uecker and former General Manager, Harry Dalton. Walk of Fame inductees are selected by a committee of local media members, former winners and Brewers officials from a ballot of 25 former Brewers players, coaches, managers and front office executives.

Helfaer Field
WISCONSIN'S PREMIERE YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers have joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility.

Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, Helfaer Field has been built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and was a part of the team that built beautiful Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their championship games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six feet high with the exception of left field where the wall is nine feet.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974 and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Children from the three Brewers primary youth baseball leagues were on hand in August, 2001 to turn the dirt at the groundbreaking ceremony. The Little Hitters League, Girls of Summer Softball League and the Brewers RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner-City) are the three avenues the Brewers offer children from ages 6-17 to play softball and baseball in Wisconsin with over 3,000 taking part statewide. Helfaer Field opened on May 31, 2002 and was used by thousands of children during its inaugural season.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also be available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers game dates, there will be five time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers night game home dates, there will be two time slots at two hours each available at 9:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Helfaer Field will not be available on Brewers day game home dates.

Reservation forms are available at the Brewers offices as well as on the club's website at www.milwaukeebrewers.com. Forms may be returned in person, by fax to 414-902-4056, by e-mail to mharlan@milwaukeebrewers.com or by mail to Mike Harlan, Milwaukee Brewers, Miller Park, One Brewers Way, Milwaukee, WI 53214.

RECORDS & HISTORY

2003 Milwaukee Brewers Media Guide

• Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Milwaukee Brewers, Inc., an organization formed by Allan H. "Bud" Selig and Edmund Fitzgerald several years prior to return Major League Baseball to the city, the "Seattle Pilots" franchise was acquired April 1.
• Team renamed "Brewers", a popular name in Milwaukee and a tribute to the city's long association with Brewing industry.
• The Brewers, managed by Dave Bristol, acquire Russ Snyder and Max Alvis from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for outfielder Roy Foster, infielder Frank Coogins and cash in their first trade on April 4.
• The Brewers played their first game on April 7 as a member of the American League West before 37,237 enthusiastic fans at County Stadium on April 7 as Lew Krausse drops a 12-0 decision to Andy Messersmith and the California Angels.
• John O'Donoghue defeats the White Sox, 8-4, in Chicago on April 11th for the team's first win.
• Bob Bolin fans 10 as the Brewers earn their first home win on May 6th over the Red Sox, 4-3.
• The 69-year-old Milt Mason, as "Bernie Brewer", goes into a trailer atop the stadium scoreboard in late June, vowing not to descend until the team draws a home crowd of 40,000, which occurs on August 16.
• Tommy Harper becomes the first American Leaguer to hit more than 30 homers and steal more than 30 bases during the same season with totals of 31 and 38, respectively.

• With the shift of the Washington franchise to Texas, the Brewers move to the Eastern Division for the 1972 season.

1972

• A players strike, which delays the opening of the season, unusually bad summer weather and the performance of the team all contribute to a record-low attendance of 600,400.
• Dave Bristol is fired following the Brewers 9-3 loss at Boston on May 27.
• Del Crandall, a popular ex-player in Milwaukee, takes over.
• Team involved in 22-inning marathon against Twins on May 12, a game in which infielder Bob Heise bats 10 times.

• Jim Wilson is appointed General Manager in October, replacing Frank Lane.

• Season opener is delayed four days after a 13-inch snowstorm blankets the city.
• In the most exciting season to date, the Brewers put together a 10-game winning streak in June, winning 15 of 16 during this span and occupying first place as late as June 19th.
• Team's new winning ways electrify Brewerland as Milwaukee cracks the million mark for the first time with a season total of 1,092,158.
• On a night when the Brewers win their 10th straight, Milwaukee fans rattle Don Newhauser with their wild cheering to the point that the Boston hurler walks in three straight runs.
• New Bernie Brewer, Bonnie Brewer and organist Frank Charles make their debuts as a fun atmosphere pervades County Stadium.
• Jim Colborn becomes the Brewers first 20-game winner tossing a three-hitter against New York (A) winning 5-2 on September 26 at County Stadium.

HALL OF FAME ROAD TRIP
Baseball As America, the Hall of Fame and Museum's first-ever national exhibit tour, continues with its second year in 2003. The exhibit opened in New York City in 2002 and will visit 10 world-class museums across the country through 2005. The national tour is sponsored by Ernst & Young. In 2003, the tour will visit Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Petersburg, Fla. Additional tour stops include Washington, D.C., St. Louis, Houston and two cities yet to be announced.

Just like the Hall of Fame experience in Cooperstown, Baseball As America is a national celebration of America's romance with baseball. It represents the richness of baseball as the American pastime and celebrates enduring American values – freedom, patriotism, opportunity and ingenuity. Visit the tour Web site, baseballasamerica.org, for complete details.

A LOOK AHEAD TO 2004
Ballots for the 2004 Hall of Fame/BBWAA election will be distributed in early December with results from the voting scheduled to be announced in early January 2004. The Veterans Committee will not vote again until 2005. A partial list of first-year candidates for election in 2004 include: Joe Carter, Dennis Eckersley, Dennis Martinez and former Brewer Paul Molitor.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS WITH 200 HIT SEASONS

Three players have surpassed the 200 hit mark in one season while wearing a Brewers uniform, led by Cecil Cooper, who accomplished the feat three times. Cooper set a club record in 1980 when he pounded out 219 hits. He also accomplished the feat in 1982 (205) and 1983 (203). Paul Molitor reached the 200-hit plateau in 1982 with 201. Robin Yount (210) has also accomplished the feat, as Yount, Cooper and Molitor finished 1-2-3 in the American League in hits in 1982, marking the first time that has happened since the 1915 Detroit Tigers.

1981 AMERICAN LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION SERIES

Milwaukee vs New York

For the first time in Major League history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League Eastern Division, New York, winners of the first half confronted Milwaukee, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time the Yankees participated in post-season action, while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best of five series, three-games-to-two and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. The Yankees lost to the National League Champion Los Angeles Dodgers four-games-to-two in the 78th World Series.

1982 WORLD SERIES

Milwaukee vs St. Louis

It was labeled the Suds Series, and the 79th World Series between Milwaukee and St. Louis truly foamed over with exciting action as it went the limit. The Series was tied three times and each club held the advantage twice in the see-saw battle. The Cardinals won their ninth World Championship by downing the Brewers four-games-to-three, including winning the final two games in St. Louis. It was St. Louis' 13th trip to the World Series and Milwaukee's first trip to the October Classic.

BOB UECKER

Radio Announcer

This season, Bob Uecker, the illustrious "Voice of the Brewers," will broadcast his 33rd year of Major League Baseball for his hometown team. Uecker returns to do play-by-play on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network.

Affectionately known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker is in his 24th season as the club's number one announcer. Uecker is enormously well respected in the industry, having been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001 where he joins such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles to name a few.

Uecker has earned the Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998.

His big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, which would alter Uecker's life forever. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked him to come on stage prior to that night's headliner, Don Rickles. Uecker displayed a deadpan stare that challenged and broke up the satirical comic. Hirt was so impressed he arranged an appearance for Uecker on the "Tonight Show," starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before the Late Night host retired in 1992.

Uecker became a national celebrity and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on the "Superstars" and "The Midnight Special" which opened the door for more elaborate appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, Uecker launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom "Mr. Belvedere," which put 100 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars." He was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for Lite Beer from Miller. Uecker was type cast as a radio announcer in the film "Major League" filmed at County Stadium, and stole the show in the sequel, "Major League II."

The snowball continued to roll for Uecker. His experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained Uecker national recognition as a play-by-play announcer for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and the World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments weren't limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the Majors, Bob authored a book entitled "Catcher In the Wry," a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

With all his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. He lent his services in support of several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In addition, he's an advocate for such organizations as cystic fibrosis, heart disease and the Wisconsin Department of Tourism. He also chairs the popular Bob Uecker Celebrity Fishing Tournament for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

For his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January of 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of support.

JIM POWELL

Radio Announcer

Jim Powell begins his eighth season as a member of the Brewers broadcast team. A highly regarded presence behind the mic, Powell was named the 1998 Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year and is a three-time recipient of the Sportscaster of the Year in South Carolina having earned the award in 1990-1991 and 1995.

In addition to his duties on the Brewers' radio network, Powell has logged some time as a member of the Brewers' television team calling the action during the 1999 and 2000 seasons.

Keeping with the baseball theme during the winter months, Jim has served as co-host of "Talkin' Brewers," the hot-stove league show heard across the Brewers radio network since 1997.

Powell began his Major League broadcasting career with the Minnesota Twins in a reserve role in 1993 and 1994. Prior to this, he accumulated extensive experience at the Minor League level serving as play-by-play announcer for the Charlotte Knights in 1990-91 and 1995 and the Columbia Mets from 1987-89 and 1993-94.

He has also dabbled at the collegiate level taking on play-by-play duties for the University of South Carolina baseball program in 1989 and 1994 as well as the University of Georgia baseball team in 1985-86.

Powell has received national exposure taking on play-by-play duties for CBS Radio for several college football games including the 1997 Sun Bowl pitting Iowa against Arizona State. He has also moonlighted on Host Communications telecasts calling the action on the gridiron in the South Carolina/Vanderbilt tilt on October 21, 2000. He served as the color analyst for the South Carolina Football and Basketball programs from 1993-95 and hosted the Coach's shows for those two sports on television. Powell also did play-by-play for Davidson College basketball in 1990.

Active contributors in the community, Jim and his wife Emmy currently serve on the Board of Directors for the Child Abuse Prevention (CAP) Fund.

Powell attended the University of Georgia as a National Merit Scholar. He and Emmy have three daughters, Allie, Sabrina and Julia. The Powells reside in Delafield.

KENT SOMMERFELD

Radio Producer

Kent Sommerfeld is in his 18th season as the Producer of Milwaukee Brewers radio broadcasts. A Wisconsin native, he has acquired a wide range of experience during his tenure in the broadcasting field.

Sommerfeld has been the Radio Producer/Director for the Marquette University radio network since 1990 and hosted an interview segment during the team's pre-game programming during the 1995-96 season. He was named Director of the Marquette Basketball Radio Network in 1999 and does play-by-play for the Marquette University Women's basketball broadcasts.

Sommerfeld attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Kent was the sports director of Cable TV 6, a wing of Whitewater's cable system, as well as the co-host of "Sports Chat," a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

In addition to his radio accolades, Kent has worked with ESPN's technical staff on several events in the Midwest. He also worked at KRBC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Abilene, Texas as a sports/news photojournalist.

Born in Milwaukee, Sommerfeld attended Brookfield Central High School. He and his wife, -eleni-, have two sons, Peter and Luke, and reside in the Milwaukee area.

BILL SCHROEDER

Television Announcer

Bill Schroeder returns for his ninth season as the color commentator on Brewers telecasts providing his analysis for audiences throughout Wisconsin.

Popular with the fans, Schroeder has evolved into a natural in the booth since his career behind the mic began in 1994. He is familiar with the business of talking baseball, co-hosting "Baseball Sunday" in 1994 and "Talkin' Brewers" on WTMJ-Radio from 1998-2000.

A lifetime .240 hitter, Schroeder spent eight seasons in the big leagues with the Brewers and the California Angels enjoying a career-best .332 batting average in 1987. As an intricate member of Team Streak, Bill caught Juan Nieves' no-hitter on April 15, 1987, in the midst of the Brewers' Major League record-tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career-high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a back-up role that season. Schroeder provided the highlight to perhaps his finest season in the Majors on June 14, 1987 at Yankees Stadium. Before family and friends, he collected four hits, including a game winning two-run homer, off New York ace Dave Righetti.

A cornerstone in the community since beginning his Major League career, he hosts the annual Bill Schroeder Celebrity Golf Classic in the Milwaukee area to benefit COA Youth and Family Centers, a Milwaukee charity which helps area children. In 1988, he was named the recipient of the Athletes For Youth Good Guy Award, while in 1984, he earned the club's Unsung Hero Award.

Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School in Princeton, New Jersey, where he earned All-State honors his junior and senior years. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and 1979.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland and raised in Princeton, New Jersey Schroeder was traded to the California Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring in 1990. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, and a son, Billy, and resides in Waukesha.

DARON SUTTON

Television Announcer

Daron Sutton is in his second season as the television play-by-play announcer for the Milwaukee Brewers, but is no stranger to Milwaukee having spent three years in the city as a teenager.

Named to the position on November 27, 2001, Sutton, 33, brings with him a strong baseball pedigree as his father, Don Sutton, was instrumental in the Brewers push to the World Series in 1982 and is a member of Baseball's Hall of Fame.

He joins the Brewers broadcasting team after spending the 2000 and 2001 seasons as a radio play-by-play announcer for the Anaheim Angels. With the Angels, he not only served as a play-by-play announcer, but also hosted both the pre- and post-game shows including a call-in show after the regular post-game show ended.

Sutton has had extensive television broadcasting experience in his young career. As a member of the Atlanta Braves broadcast team on FOX Sports South, he regularly served in a play-by-play capacity, while also hosting "The New Dodge Braves Report", a Braves pre-game show. He also handled Southeastern Conference collegiate athletic telecasts for FOX in men's and women's basketball, swimming and diving, gymnastics, track and field and volleyball.

Sutton began his broadcasting career in 1993 on the CNN Airport Network before moving to the CNN Sports in December of 1994 as an anchor and then onto FOX Sports South in 1997.

A Minor League pitcher, Sutton spent 1992 with the Boise (ID) Hawks, a Class A affiliate of the Angels, and part of 1993 in the Atlanta Braves organization.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD, PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer, was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will be asked to submit three candidates to a panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services. The panel will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

Past winners include Jim Thome (2002), Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Sammy Sosa, Willie Mays, Lou Brock, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Kirby Puckett and others.

John Hancock is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the title sponsor of The John Hancock All-Star FanFest, an interactive "Baseball Heaven on Earth" held in conjunction with MLB's All-Star Game.

WOW women on wednesdays

WOW themes will focus on what's important to women and their families. From the time you enter the game--where the first 5,000 adults will receive a special $10 Kohl's Department Stores offer--through the first pitch to the last inning, you will know it's WOW. And just so you don't miss out on any of the excitement, Women on Wednesdays will have its own area for pre-game and in-game activities located in the Right Field corner of the Field Level in Miller Park.

THE HOME RUN CLUB
Corporate Partnership Program
(Formerly Baseball for Wisconsin)

The Home Run Club Corporate Partnership Program, previously known as Baseball for Wisconsin, was established in 1995 in conjunction with the MMAC and the Greater Milwaukee business community, to assist the Milwaukee Brewers in selling season tickets. It is a unique sales program to both the Brewers and Major League Baseball.

The Home Run Club is an employee benefit sales program. To implement the program, the Brewers team up with companies on a mutually agreeable subsidy. This in turn permits the Brewers to sell season ticket packages to employees within the particular company through a special internal ticket sales program. The company subsidy is used in order to offset the total cost of the various ticket packages to employees. The Brewers are able to sell more ticket packages because of the minimal cost to company employees, and the company is recognized as a corporate sponsor of the Brewers as well as receiving other mutually agreeable benefits. Upon company approval, the Milwaukee Brewers will run all aspects of the program while the employee benefits are reflected as coming solely from the participating company.

By taking advantage of this program, company employees can secure preferential seating in Miller Park and can enjoy all of the benefits of being a season ticket holder at a considerable discount.

Interested companies who would like to participate in the program or need further information are encouraged to contact the Brewers sales office at 414-902-4100.

MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to beautiful Maryvale Baseball Park for their sixth Spring Training in 2002. Considered to be one of the premiere spring complexes, the Brewers are in the midst of a 15-year lease through 2012 which has helped to revitalize the Maryvale neighborhood.

The facility, opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as 1,000 lawn seats. The complex features eight fields, including two half fields. The Brewers Minor League players also train at the Maryvale complex across the street from the Major League facility.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this beautiful complex a reality. With Maricopa County, the Maryvale County Stadium District and the city of Phoenix providing resources, Maryvale is the foundation for future neighborhood development. Overseeing the operations of the Maryvale Baseball Park is the Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department.

The primary architect on the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix, Arizona. Their work at Maryvale garnered several awards in 1998 including the Architecture Accessiblilty Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues, the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.
